Memo. No.: 24/24-2021 ACD (1)

Dated: 23.11.2021

Subject: Permission to run the Government Model Sanskriti Senior Secondary Schools in double shifts.

On the subject cited above.

You are aware that presently 135 Government Model Sanskriti Senior Secondary Schools are affiliated with the CBSE. These are special kinds of schools and gained wide popularity, as a result, the enrollment in these schools has been increased. Accordingly, some of these schools sought permission to run in double shifts.

In the welfare of the students, the Department has considered their request and all the Government Model Sanskriti Senior Secondary Schools schools which want to run the school in double shifts are hereby permitted with a direction to get the necessary prior approval from the CBSE.

Further, the schools are allowed to pay the fee, if any, from the funds available with the school and after that schools may send their request to the Department for the reimbursement of the same only, through the District Education Officer concerned.
